THE GARDEN SERIES WITH GEORGE WEIGEL GARDEN CREATIONS

Friday, August 20, 2010

Patriot-News garden columnist George Weigel will be on board to talk gardening and answer questions on the way to and from this outstanding attraction.

REVISED ITINERARY

- 7:00 AM Depart Weis Markets Simpson Ferry Rd., Mechanicsburg
- 7:30 AM Depart Colonial Park Mall Pole # 27, by Boscov's Harrisburg
Fast food stop en route – on your own
- 10:00 AM Arrive at Temple University's Ambler Campus—Ambler Arboretum has a diverse range of learning gardens including a formal perennial garden, an herb garden, a native plant garden, a rock wall, a sustainable wetland garden and our most recent addition, the Ernesta Ballard Healing Garden.
- 12:00– 1PM Lunch on your own—with many options to choose from
- 1:30 PM Henry Schmieder Arboretum at Delaware Valley College, enjoy a guided walking tour. A horticultural jewel in the heart of Bucks County. The Arboretum encompasses 60 acres of Delaware Valley College. The Arboretum complements the mission of the college's Department of Ornamental Horticulture and Environmental Design by providing a living laboratory of mature trees and remnant native woodland. The Arboretum's designed gardens serves as a "green resource" for the surrounding community. Seasonal beauty combines with the Georgian architecture of many of the college's buildings.
- 4:00 PM Next visit Michael Petrie's Handmade Gardens. Enjoy this garden center which is brand –new and an original place founded by the creative genius who wins top display garden awards. George will be available to answer questions or give advice on purchases.
- 5:30 PM Dinner included at Firecreek Restaurant
- 7:00 PM Depart for home
- 8:30 PM Approximate arrival in Harrisburg
- 9:00 PM Approximate arrival in Mechanicsburg
