

The Traveling Red Hats Present...

New York City

A Feast for the Senses

Monday, May 17, 2010

Itinerary

6:00 AM Depart Weis Markets, Mechanicsburg

6:30 AM Depart Colonial Park Mall, Pole #27

A Feast for your taste buds is first today.

We'll meet your NYC Guide and a host for a tour of the many diverse areas of the city influenced by immigrants from across the sea. Little Italy, Greek Bakeries, Chinatown and Jewish deli's are just few "flavors" this city has to offer. Taste a Greek treat & a TriBeCa Sweet and enjoy a luncheon in Little Italy.

Next is a feast for your eyes. Enjoy stunning views of the Brooklyn Bridge as we get under way. Pass close to the Statue of Liberty under the awesome power of the wind. Ellis Island, the Manhattan Skyline, Governors Island and Battery Park are view of the things we'll view while on the water. Depending on the winds and tides, the captain may sail up the Buttermilk Channel or out to the Verrazzano Bridge spanning the ocean entrance to NY Harbor. Prevailing winds all but guarantee an exciting adventure on the waters!

5:00 PM Depart for home

Rest stop/ meal stop en route home
